Household Cleaning Products

Household Cleaning Products

Nice Enterprise was the first Taiwan manufacturer to supply the domestic market with natural household cleaning products. Nice's two cleaning product lines, "PAOS" and "Baigo", were developed to be both safe and effective.

We firmly understand the impact of environmental damage and it is against our belief that we should manufacture products that enable it. Not only do we make products that are easy and safe to use for the consumer, we also do our part in protecting the earth by making sure only natural ingredients find their way to the cleansing products we manufacture.
